Day 1: Wednesday 5th August.

Arrive in Brisbane, the capital city of Queensland. Grab the air train to Roma Street or taxi, it's a short journey from Domestic and International Airports to our Brisbane base, the Hotel Grand Chancellor, Brisbane. Ideally situated on the CBD fringe and close to the exhibition grounds this 4.5 star venue offers commanding views of the city skyline and will be our base for four nights. Register during the afternoon and then join all the delegates at a Meet & Greet Cocktail function commencing at 6.00pm to 8pm.

[Meals: Canapes]
[Drinks included]

Day 2: Thursday 6th August.

Breakfast at the hotel then travel to the Maleny Botanical Gardens and Bird World. Twenty three acres of gardens with stunning views to the iconic Glass house mountains. The aviaries contain 600 native and exotic birds, aviary tours available. Morning tea and lunch in this beautiful setting before heading north to John & Ros Mercers' Kandanga Valley Charolais & Charbray for a herd visit and camp oven dinner.

[Meals: Breakfast, Morning Tea, Lunch, Dinner]
[Dinner Drinks included]

Day 3: Friday 7th August.

Breakfast at the hotel before traveling to the Brisbane Royal Show [Ekka] where Charolais are the feature breed. All judging at this event is in the open air with six rings in action at once. An opportunity to see other breeds judged on the lawns at the same time and network with Australian producers. Late in the afternoon we head back to the hotel to refresh and get ready for a gala dinner and sale event celebrating 55 years of Charolais in Australia. This will be a great opportunity to socialise with Australian breeders and experience an Australian auction sale.

[Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner]
[Dinner Drinks included]

Day 4: Saturday 8th August.

Breakfast at the hotel before the Charolais Charbray International AGM. Delegates not attending the AGM can tour the renowned Roma Street Parklands across the road from the hotel. A quick drive to the Brisbane Opal Museum and shop, discover the beauty of Australian Opals before heading back to the Royal show for the Interbreed competition. Expect crowds as the show is open to the public. Today we take in the Beef Interbreed competitions. Charolais has an amazing record of success in these events. After interbreed, we head to a show and dinner at the highly acclaimed Australian Outback Experience on the Gold Coast.

[Meals: Breakfast, Dinner & Drinks]

[Meals: Lunch is your choice and cost at the Ekka]

Day 5: Sunday 9th August.

Breakfast and check out of the hotel. A quick drive to Southbank, home of the Queensland Museum where delegates can tour the museum or take in other South Bank sights. Another short drive to the observatory platform at Mount Coot-tha for spectacular views over the city. Pictures taken, we head to the Lone Pine Koala Sanctuary for lunch and then discover Australian wildlife. Koalas, wombats, platypus and kangaroos abound in this sanctuary. We will have plenty of time here so you can appreciate the diversity of Australian wildlife. Tonight we stay at Toowoomba on the top of the Great Dividing Range. On a clear day there are great views as we climb the range. Dinner at our hotel.
